In commenting on the coal and gas bills of the fire companies at the Township Committee meeting last week Messrs. Stout and Lockwood said the fact that the houses furnished a very respectable resort for the young men, the money spent in this direction was well expended. This matter, in their opinion, should be looked at in a broader sense than the mere economic view of it.

Edward Leuthausser, who lately arrived from Germany, was tendered a reception at Leuthausser's Hotel on Thursday and Friday nights by his sons, Arthur and Herman. Pierson Post Fife and Drum Corps and the Montclair Brass Band also tendered a serenade to Mr. Leuthausser. A large number of well-known Bloomfielders and guests from other places were present. Singing, speech-making, etc., were indulged in until a late hour, followed by an elegant collation. Mr. Leuthausser's age is sixty-nine years, but he does not look to be over fifty. He will remain here some time.

Another Advance in the Price of Coal.

The Eastern sales agents at a meeting in New York on Thursday advanced prices 15 cents per ton on chestnut coal, and ordered the production for the month of June increased from 2,750,000 tons in all, the allotment for the present month, to 3,000,000 tons. The production of coal for June, 1891, was about 3,440,000 tons. This will necessitate another advance in the price of coal in Bloomfield.

Disposed of the Unexpended Balance.

The Executive Committee which had charge of the Thirteenth Regiment reunion, held here last September, met at Amzi Dodd's residence on Wednesday night to decide on the disposition of an unexpended balance in the hands of the Committee. It was decided to give $50 to the Women's Relief Corps of William S. Pierson Post, G. A. R., and the balance, $30.66, to the Mountainside Hospital.

NOTICE.

The annual meeting of the lot owners in Bloomfield Cemetery will be held in the reception room at the Cemetery, Wednesday, June 1, 1892, at 4.30 P. M., for the election of two managers for three years in place of Messrs. Thomas Oakes and G. Lee Stout, whose term of office now expires, and for the transaction of such other business as may be brought before the meeting.

By order of the Managers.
HORACE DODD, Secretary.
Bloomfield, N. J., May 17, 1892.

Needs and Wants

Man needs but little here below,
But wants a great deal more;
He needs two overcoats and suits,
But wants to own a clothing store.

The wants of mankind are like the census of a great city. The realization seldom comes up to the expectation. The difference between a man's wants and his needs, if turned into ready cash, would make a respectable campaign fund.

OUR SPECIAL BUSINESS

Is to study the wants of mankind in the clothing line. And under our system of doing business a man can have what he wants for about what he would pay for what he needs if it were not for our enterprise.

As an illustration of what we mean, take a look at our splendid line of

MEN'S SPRING SUITS

At $10, $12, $13 and $15.

They are handsome, shapely good fitting, stylish, and for

Good Solid Value

they have not an equal in Newark or out. Nine men out of ten that look are fully satisfied with our assortment.

You'll be one of the nine if you'll take the time to look.

A large line of Star Shirt Waists for the boys. Don't forget them. They're cheap.
